

- 1] MARS students may apply for a financial support for their participation on relevant scientific conferences and summer schools.
- 2] If their application is approved before the start of the event and then they provide receipts for conference fee, summer school fee, accommodation and transportation after the event, their costs are reimbursed as a scholarship up to 5000 CZK per person, per academic year.
- 3] Students apply using the form available online at: <https://iksz.fsv.cuni.cz/en/study/media-and-area-studies-mars>
- 4] The application and relevant supporting documents are sent to MARS coordinator, who informs students about acceptance or rejection of the application.
- 5] After completion of the participation, students apply for reimbursement and provide supporting documentation (confirmation of participation, tickets, accommodation bills etc.).
- 6] The application and relevant supporting documents are sent to MARS coordinator, who informs students about reimbursement of the costs.
- 7] It is possible to apply repeatedly, but the maximum total amount per student during each academic year of their MARS studies is 5000 CZK. It is not possible to apply or use the support without being a MARS student at the moment (interruption of studies, prior to enrollment, after graduation etc.).
- 8] If the approved costs exceed the total 5000 CZK amount per student per academic year, the reimbursement is only partial.
